Hello everyone.

It's sad but my first post here is not one that is for the fun and joy.
I post this thread to notify you that the Renz0r Community has moved domains.

You can find us @ www.renz0r.net and www.renz0r-gaming.com

The Renz0r Radi0 also changed domains:
www.renz0r-gaming.com/radio

The subdomains for IRC and TS work on both addresses.

The reason why we moved domains is a long story.
You can read it here:
<http://www.renz0r-gaming.com/forum/showthread.php?t=2385>

But for those who want the short version:

Recon aka Renalpha was an ex-admin on Renz0r.
You probably know him well, as he seems to have a nag to stand out of the crowd and be disliked.

Recon got his ass banned after we found out he illegally installed servers on one of our Boxes.
What he did was illegally install a WOW server on my first box.
Not even a legit WOW server.
He did this before almost a year ago, and I was kind enough to forgive him for it.
He could stay, but would not get access back on that box.

Time went by and only recently did he get Box access again, with a clear rule:
No installing anything unless you asked me, and gotten permission.
Foolish me I believed he would be honest.
He installed a Reborn Beta FDS and brenbot on it, behind my back.
And even when I took box access from him, he did not seem to care.

Filak found out why, cause he installed VNC (a remote desktop application) on it, and several FTP programs.
The mofo still had access.

After getting banned for these crimes, he responded by deleting the renz0r website.
Lucky for me a backup was made, just an hour before he deleted it.

So we move webserver, but then he uses his next card:
He blackmailed me for the domain, which he registered for me back when we started.

(I didn't know anything about web servers and domains back then, so I let him set it up)
He registered the domain I paid for on his name, so it was legally his.
He demanded I pay $100 USD by the next day or the domain would no longer link to my community and he would sell it to the highest bidder.

An entire Renegade community hates this guy now.

I created a n00b story out of it.

It would be appreciated by us if you left your vote for Recon on this n00bfile:

http://www.n00bstories.com/n00bfile_view.php?id=6970

Thank you very much for reading.

That's right bitch i'm learning dutch.

Leave Renz0r alone or you'll receive a LOT more than the banhammer you've already been smacked with.

/me knows where Recon lives

EDIT: Now that i've calmed down a bit... excuse my language, i have had enough of the above user.

Btw: The last date the VNC application was used was on November 11th 2007.
Not used it? That was two days before I banned him
But of course all we can expect from him is lies over lies.

Obvious shows RenAlpha aka Recon is a poor guy. Its also sad to act as a gangster on forums and over internet (maybe even in real life) with your blood thing signature. It wouldn't surprise me that you would be a guy who think he is everything, and is the biggest 'gangster' (after this too) there is, with your friends, on the Internet. Most of those people end up in court/jail or with drugs, and thus being nothing, like you.....

In the end, you dont gain a thing, by such actions as you did to RenZ0r.

If he originally purchased the domain, sadly there is nothing you can do about it, except wait for it to expire. He might extend the registration out of spite, but eventually he will get tired of paying cash money for a domain that he doesn't want, and you will be able to reclaim it.

Well Recon, you again fail to see the whole picture.

Your short sight has always let you hold stigmas and you often judge a situation on only half the facts, and do not seem to be willing to know all the facts.

Too bad you are banned at the forums, and I will not unban you.

But just ask anyone to visit this link and confirm what it says there:

<http://www.renz0r-gaming.com/forum/showthread.php?t=2290>

What it says there is the idea of a coop clan.

As the date of that post shows, this was way before you or dreganius came with the idea.

Now I understand the misunderstanding in ts when you started to tell me about your ideas of a coop clan.

I was like

[WTF, I let him create a CSS clan, and you do shit with it cause you have "not enough time"

But you DO have enough time to steal my ideas and try to screw that up too!]

That was why I got so mad, but you thought you/dreg made the coop clan thing up.

At the time you said this, I was already in dialog with the current leaders of the coop clan.

Maybe I am selfish when I blame this on you, cause you failed to read and listen in ts (where this was discussed in your presence plenty of times).

You should have read the forums, it is a duty of an admin to know what is going on.

But selfish or not, I don't give a shit in your case, cause it is you.

In your case I don't really feel the responsibility to act nice and out of honor and justice.

You try to pin this on me, yet you refuse to accept any responsibility of what you did to us.

At that admin thing/: you make a lousy admin, cause you are not a team player.

You rarely listen, you rarely communicated.

Everytime something changed or was different (server settings, bot change, shit online, shit offline) and we asked you afterwards it turned out you did it and did not communicate what you did.

You were a solitary bee in a hive. That doesn't work.

But that was the one thing I just kept forgiving you for your shit as I hoped that was something you would learn eventually.
Too bad you seemed to ignorant and stubborn to want to learn this.
Add to that you are very valueless.

One example I have not even mentioned in your n00bfile, but that gives another plain example:
You payed for our radi0 license.
We move webserver and you get banned and all that.
Then webhost asks me if I want the shoutcast radio installed in my control panel.
Although it is free to use, I considered that stealing from you.
Even though this license is global for that webserver, you payed it.
And if I wanted to use it, I wanted to pay you back what you spend on it.
Cause obviously, you aint gonna use it anymore.

So I mail you and tell you I will send you the money for the radi0 license as I intend to set the radi0 back up.
You mail me back saying, I could keep it if I wanted.
But I am a value kinda guy, and you know this.
So I send you the money for it back (30 USD) via Paypal.
Next thing you do is open a radi0 station on your tiberium-planet site.
Nowhere did you say to me that you were gonna use it too.
We could have split the money.
Sure, you can say it was stupid of me to send you that money after what you've done.
But at least I can sleep at night and don't have to worry that my soul will end up in hell.
For you I am not sure.
Honesty is something you are incapable of.
Next to that you are unable to reflect on yourself.

All you do is try to get back at me.
And why? Have you really convinced yourself you did nothing wrong and that all is to blame on me?
If so, you really need help.
Cause that giant post on renz0r about you (of which I mailed you the content, so you can read it still even though your banned <-- another value of mine) there is only truth and nothing but the truth. I have an entire community that can and will confirm this!

Normally I would not stray to your level.
But in this case I just did not see why not.
You attacked me personally and you attacked the renz0r community.
You deserve that people know what you did.
And the siggy and hatemail contest?
Well I just had to get this out of my system.
I honestly really hate you, and take pleasure in your suffering.
It doesn't make me a bad person, it just makes me human.
Anyone would feel that way if they got toyed with like you tried to toy with me and renz0r.

And since your email to me involved somekind of scenario where I got raped by my mother and therefor had to take it out on you, that's just the kind of thing you can expect back.
You play with fire, you risk getting burned.

Now all you can do is tell people on msn I am lying.
I hereby swear that all I have told about this is the god honest truth and nothing less!

Oh and edit: I appreciate that people ask him to give the domain back, but we don't need it.
We are Renz0r.net now and Renz0r-Gaming.com
He wants this domain so bad? He can keep it.
Stick it where the sun don't shine Recon.

This was the meltdown for reckneya, he started flaming at me!

he said im not a good leader
im not serious enough reckneya said also:
i want to start the coop clan as something serious and i dont want you to have it and end it to shit.

i was offended by that.
i said fine i leave
so i did.

reckneya refused to talk to me and banned me of all the servers...

and for revenge i have taken the renz0r.com domain and refuse to give it to him.

Except for all the other obvious lies in your post, I like to comment on this:

This here is pure bullshit and a clear example how you try and twist situation and put them in a wrongful order.
You either do this cause you want to spread lies and get people to side with you.
Or you do this because you don't even remember the chronological order in which things happened, and make this out of it, forgetting you did what you did because you're an enormous asshole.

You got banned from the forums after deleting the site!
Then you decide to come and play on renz0r servers.
THAT's why I banned you from every of my servers you provokingly joined.
What did you think I would do, let you enjoy playing on servers I and the other generous donators of renz0r pay money for?

You got banned cause you were obviously not welcome anymore.
And you KNEW that!
Your lil blackmail plan was just because you are a childish sad and most of all a small person.

You deleted the site cause you could not live with the fact I was gonna move webserver and succeed in it.
It would mean I was no longer depended on you to get you back in after what you did on the box.
So you tried to sabotash it.
Mission failed.
So you try and steal the forum license.
Mission failed.
Out of frustration, realizing you really weren't gonna get unbanned you use the last and final thing you have against us.
The domain.
Now we don't need that anymore either
Mission failed again.

Now stop lying to convince people here (and maybe even yourself?) it was your right to do what you did.
You did not have any right to do what you did.
You just refuse to accept you got yourself in this position.
And that is not my fault that you are like that.

After seeing your reputation being destroyed by just sharing what you did to others, seeing your n00bfile get high ratings, changing domain so that you are stuck with a pretty much worthless domain, and generally make fun of you together with my friends and all the other people of renz0r that hate you as well, I must say: I am pretty much over it.

You know what I still think was the funniest thing I did?
I didn't even mention it in the n00bfile, cause I forgot cause of all the commotion.
When you deleted the site, and it got restored on a new quota, your FTP password got reset and I logged into it cause my windows had saved the FTP info and I clicked on the FTP which accidentally logged me in on your webserver.
I had access to it, and could have deleted all your sites (of you and your clients) easily.
But instead I make a txt file, put in there that I (reck) got onto your FTP, what kind of n00b you are and what not, and that I in comparison with you DO have a certain amount of class and thus wont delete your sites like you deleted mine.
I upload the txt file on your FTP and then I mail you the link to the txt file, to prove I was really on that FTP.

You got ownt man, stop telling yourself it is me who needs to get over something.
I just know this will haunt you for a long time and chances are that no one will ever want to get into business with you in Renegade anymore.

You will probably never be able to work with the level of hardware/software for a community or anything for this game.

Nobody important will trust you. You already were at that point when MP-Gaming kicked you in the nuts.

I gave you a chance to rebuild your reputation in Renz0r.

You wasted that chance, and now you are of even worse then when you came in reputationwise.

And although not a pretty and mature thing to say, I must admit this brings joy to my heart.

It is my revenge to you.

Good bye Recon.

Thanks for helping me in the start.

I'll take off the Recon shit from the main page in the weekend, and eventually the siggy will be replaced too.

Not because I like you or consider forgiving you.

Don't count on that.

No, the only reason I do that is to show people that whatever picture you will try to paint of me, I am not what you say I am.

Now take some of your own advice, and get yourself a live, and grow up, for God's sake, grow the fuck up.

Your former buddy,

Reck
