IN M08 the "All Brains No Brawn" mission I noticed after you get the first key in the room to the left after coming off of the first elevator, and then you go to the room to the right to see the Dr shuman guy, the Dr mobius in the powersuit is invisible and invisable, what is the problem here?

I rembered before that I have finished the mission. (Just Playing SP again ) You can fix it by saving the game and reloading it and he appears like normal.
