Well it started on DG we catch them using rgh.
so we banned them.
and we saw them on other servers and cheating them there too
so we tried too get them banned everywhere.
some servers were good and lissen and were cheater free.
also one problem we were on xphaze and we had all proof.
and the admin and mods were also getting killed in ref and pp
and they didnt do crap. they didnt want too ban them go check screenshots we got screenshots
and they said we rather have cheaters on our servers.

Names of the mods : [YIP]FLAME , XpZsOcOm1 , HAVOCZX

well here are all proof we got.
ill just post them here
so u guys can banned them or do what ever u want with it.

Video :

<http://nl.youtube.com/watch?v=roIUQtl-mhU>

And watch this ONE ::

Hopefully u guys do something with it.

cheers!

As for XpHaZe they're a whole other story. I still hold with my belief that their owner cheated in his servers and lied about it, so I don't expect anything less from any other player.

hahaha im yipflame and no im not a mod at xphaze i was onl on that irc today cause i was bored so my opinions ar emy own, not that off xphaze, well everyone here should know because one person cheated in one server doesnt mean they will cheat in the next, and also he kept on with threatening us that if they didnt ban these people he would get the server shut down even though his only proof was his word that they had banned him at duke, didnt show us any other proof, also each server mods differently and these players have been banned but only after they felt they had enough proof to ban them, they even told them that they was waiting for more info

[21:48:31] @xbot2)) Censored: just waiting for more data

all he had to do was stop complaining over and over again and it would of been sorted.

But it is also good to be sure.

I don't know about you, but if I ran a server and some guy comes in and starts saying that some of the current players are cheaters, and yet they haven't been suspected of it yet, than I would want my own proof first... not some random dude's word.

And especially not threats. If someone wants to say that they are cheaters, they can come in peacefully and suggest the idea as well as the note that they have been caught on other servers. But that is it. I wouldn't ban because of that, unless they actually cheating in MY server... or else I have no reason to ban them.

yes indeed, which is why i took some time circling round IRCs in attempts to tell the admins about these guys, but tbh it was very obvious these guys cheated, i was in game with them and they were killing everyone. Obviously i understand what you are saying, i would be the same: wanting my own proof, but in this case it just seems silly that there is no response from the mods in xphase

Flame on the other hand,shouldnt of said what he said,and yeah his not much of a mod here anymore,but still Flame was the best mod to catch cheaters,since he wasnt ingame he didnt belive you guys,

If you guys posted on xphazegaming.com and showed XpZs0c0m those ss or other mods involved we could of banned them,

1) XpHaZe is a little odd. Back in my Gamerz0ne days, we caught one of their admins using *cheat name removed*in a Gz0ne server (the little pink/purple message gave him away); they caught him independently of us, but still refused our evidence despite the fact that it simply supported their existing conclusion instead of forcing a conclusion upon them.

2) My recommendations (when it comes to server selection):

If you want a large AOW (>32 player) server, try Jelly or NS. You are probably going to like one or the other, but try your luck with both.

If you want a small AOW (<32 player) server, BC or BI/TK2 (BlackIntel/TheKOSs2) are your best bets.

If you are into the sniping thing, I'd recommend the BI/TK2 sniper server.

Muad please do not turn this topic into a argument about skins.

Shizzles man calm down just ignore it talk about it somewhere else.

PepPer the screen shoots counteract what you say.

I was there and to be honest there was not that much complaining going on, we just said all at the same time who was cheating.

Also it was not that hard to see he was cheating, the argument that he was killing everyone is not good enough as there are people who can juts headshot you on sight.

However when the map started erik instantly got killed about 2 seconds later "Map city" and I got hit but he did not kill me, we was both in our base and the map only just started so no he was not sniping.

On the argument that you need prof to ban someone on your server I completely agree, however I would also check with other server administrators to check if they have been banning on other servers.

Often people like that do not cheat on the server they play on the most so it is treatment to get them banned where they go for punishment otherwise they will just ban on another server, and often get better at hiding it.

Ye right.. Nice to know that you guys try to deny it. At the time your forum was still public for guests, some1 of the mods posted a ss with tracers on it, thats not a cheat? and its a fact that erikboxem used RGH. Also, limewire was banned from fnfall's marathon by BIATCH (if im right, no mod anymore so i cant check) for some uber high dmg value for 1 of the weapons.

Im still not going offtopic about it, its just lots of words off-topic ftw. Oh well, Xphaze used to be fun, when it was still populated, same for Black cell. Too bad both servers actually died (as there are hardly any ppl in it during the day, including night).
