So, when I got up this morning I noticed there was a message on my machine from an "unknown caller" at 5am. It was obviously someone calling to insult me, but the problem is that I didn't understand the message. So, whoever it was, please call back and enunciate your words more clearly so I can understand the insult. I did make out the word "n00b" and the fact that you have a stuttering problem, but there was another word that I didn't understand. I think you were calling me a "dude", but I'm not sure.

Anyway, I haven't had a prank call in a while, so it was nice to know that people still think of me from time to time, so please call again, or call my cell phone... I'm sure you can find that number pretty easily too.

I once had a prank call where the prank b*tch totally embarrassed me.

I took the phone and said "Hello, who's this?" and she goes "your grandma." I hung up LOL

FFS! I got pwned but that was a few years ago when I was younger and inexperienced.

She's got the source code! This already happened! She's holding out on us!

Riot! Revolt! Rebellion! Viva la rioting!

(Just kidding)

I do own a store, I just opened it on December 8th. And yes, I do have internet access there. But no, I don't sell weed.
