I like charging in with my one unit in order to put the enemy in disarray that way my team mates can go in for the kill while they are busy with me harassing them.

my sniper tatics that I've used since who knows when.- aim ahead of your target and let them run into the crosshairs- find the most hidden spots (best spots) possible, and move to each from time to time.- do suicide tackles on mammoth tanks with buggies (lol j/k)- rl people, shoot the ground, Splash damage has a bigger chance of happening then actually hitting the person with a rocket. These are just some of my countless tatic's and strageties

My fav is this one :

http://messagebrd.westwood.ea.com/cgi-bin/boards/ren/english/ultimatebb.cgi?ubb=get_topic&f=2&t=000653 It's always, always, always very effective. But i love harassment/psychological war too (by using 0 cost unit) and all kind of rush :- apc rush- transport rush- flame tank rush- med tank rush- car rush- mam rush- stank rush- aircraft rush. I love using APC these ways :- playing stock car => especially when the server is laggy => very tricky weird effects !- APC infantry hunting !!! Always fun to kill expensive units with an APC.
