So what do you guys think, how are the sides balanced? GDI and NOD? Fair? Cause I'm sure alot of you heard of complaints for Yuri'revenge.

Right now its pretty well balanced. Out of the 5 maps in the beta test 3 of them are a tossup on who wins. and the other 2 maps are pretty close. In my opinion the 2 that I say are imbalanced has more to do with map layout then team balance.

I think the sides are pretty balanced if you start with at least 500 credits. The GDI side has an advantage with their Grenaders and attacking Harvesters early on for quick creds. If you start with 500 credits (or 250), then the sides are balanced because each side can start off with Rockets. [February 18, 2002: Message edited by: eg]

Bringing back a two month old topic to correct the spelling of a person who probably doesn't even visit the forums anymore. That's just sad.

Nod own GDI on walls (flying and normal) as they have stealth and GDI have no AGT to detect them, also the tunnels are easy way for stealths to get in
