Basically, the Primary is the 120mm cannon (from RA2) and secondary is the Mammoth Tusks, that Own infantry the missiles in secondary fire blow up after a short distance, so dont shoot across the map with them. The same with the stealth tank, and the shells of the med tank.

Dammit, I didn't even KNOW the Mammoth had secondary/anti-infantry fire! DOH! I mean, I knew it did in C&C, but not in Renegade.

8 vehicles with drivers. If a vehicle has been abandoned it doesn't count. So you could have 8 vehicles and steal more from the opposing team.

So use the other 6000 on anti tank infantry or nuke beacons, there is enough you can spend your credits on.

Its been done before, B33F. Yes, eg and Xax, the limit on mines is thirty for the whole team. There is also a limit on the amount of remote c-4's a team can place, I don't know if anyone knows the exact number yet. Timed c-4's I'm not sure if there's a limit or not.
