Hi we're a newly formed clan, here's a brief intro about us.

History:

Epsilon International was founded in 2007 as a private contracting organization , next to that we have also recently formed a clan {-Xc}, it's made out of a coalition of smaller clans and communities.

We like to promote the idea of several Clan and non-clan factions working together to achieve a greater cause.

Right now we have about 30 members in our clan, a website , testing a server, and a few freelancers helping out with designing .

Our policies are very flexible

Depending on your personal time-schedule, you can adjust your status to what suits you best:

- Fulltime
- Parttime
- Civilian

We are a raw mix of ethics, standards, warrior ethos, army culture, principles and values and we verify the importance of initiative and skill, meaning if you had a high ranked position in a former clan, you can continue your success in our clan with a similar position.

We are a clan of many.

One thing we all have in common is that we are all Renegade clans.

Our coalition is formed out of mutual respect of each other.

We are all renegade clans and we recognize that together we can do much more.

If you are interested to join the coalition as a clan,

Here's what we offer:

as commander of your clan, not only will you remain commander of your troops within our network but you will also have a say as a general of our core group.

Our system is based on a confederation.

What we are looking for:

- Clanmembers
- Freelancers

- Clan coalitions
- Clan alliances

Interested ?

Hey there. Your style looks professional but the free hosting and lack of domain name doesn't. Good luck, though .

yea that was me
but not my crappy petition

besides , EA removing the name C&C deserves at least a few angry frowns and some oldschool reactions right ? I just had the idea that fellow Renegade players would feel the same.

Petitions don't work , that's obvious. But it's a lame excuse for not trying

Maybe I'm old for saying this but I was raised with the principle of:

" Some people don't vote because they believe that it wouldn't change anything.
Things didn't change because some people didn't vote."

then again it's 2008, I am just old I guess .

We could turn this in one of those ethical debates weither or not EA is humane for doing this. But there's already a thread a few forum sections above, so spam there all you want.

People like dover who don't even play this game but spend alot of time reading a forum based on the game are the exact type of people who you should ignore.

People like troopr02 who like to troll the forums and have to increase their e-penis size by insulting other members constantly are the people you should ignore. From what I've seen, Dover's worth listening to.

Also, I agree that not doing anything definitely won't change a thing. Even if trying doesn't change it either, it's better to go on a slim chance than to not do something BECAUSE of that slim chance.

I guess I should disregard the "Dover has joined the game" messages from n00bsvr01, then? Jackass.

Some nerds have a weird definition of "playing", I consider playing like you have downs syndrome not to be playing at all.

Only problem with that statement: I'm willing to bet you've never even seen Dover play.

Troop means "playing" as in competitively. Playing in a huge public server is not challenging at all compared to playing in a game with 4 people who know what they are doing in a map like...say Canyon.

Done! Tell me if you need any further changes!

Due to some recent vandal activity, only select users can modify the Renegade wiki. If you want permission, PM Crimson.
