I been playing Halo alot latey and thinking of renting a server for it from gameservers.com as finding a server to play the game is hard, they all have pings over 200 or 500 all the time.

So does anyone play it still?

Stay on topic please, don't need to hear if you don't like it or not.

For what Halo game is this? I am guessing Halo 2? I only have Halo CE for PC. I would reinstall it if you are getting a server for it, though.

Have to agree with you there. You have to be a fag to dislike Halo.

You know the only original thing about Halo 3 is the single player, right? Every single gameplay element was taken from both Halo 1 and Halo 2. (Other than the new use of "Equipment" and the 2 new Grenades)
