I'll answer politely before the flammers get in.

1. There is no advertising on this forum, never has and Crimson has said there never will?
[citation needed]
 2. If you want to promote a site or clan, the best place would be <http://www.renegadewiki.com/>
 3. Your site needs a lot of work, it looks very unprofessional
 4. Please don't behave here like you did on the BBF forums, you'll get flamed a lot more here.

i would just like to point out that your name is really original considering there already is a community called renz0r and it already has a discussion and download center.

on top of that www.renz0r-gaming.com already looks professional.
since a lot of people that have web design skill have put their time into developing it.

just a suggestion unless you really have some grudge or score to settle might want to pick a better name for your community instead of stealing an existing one.

but i guess to each his own

Please tell me that you're 12 and have been held back 2 years. Please? I need to know that it's not your fault for talking like an incoherent fucktard, since you can't blame it on your current location.
