LIKE OMG THE INTERWEBZ IS UNDER ATTACK!

I can't get in btw....

What is the big problem? It could just be a simple update or a server restart and you guys start bitching....what do you expect you want like dedication 24/7? Fucken assshats.....

Don't let my brother bother you he is just trying to start a flame war and getting everyonehipped up over nothing. Dont worry about it just breath and pretend that he does not exist.

That is how I deal with it.

I dont know why they are hiding the truth. The truth is they are fixing the "msn/hotmail" hack I was talking about in a previous thread where by using a javascript injection method, you can create an account anything@anything.anything, using the MS login servers, hence their downtime..
