I had a virus on my PC a day ago, I formatted it last night and went to put in my back up version of winXP, turns out it wasn't my back-up version but my long thought lost back-up disk of old renegade files.
I found on the disk the .lvl files for the map fixes, including the fixes since CP1. I wanted these files a long time ago and asked if BHS had kept a copy that I sent to Jonathan, but he had also lost them...
If you want them, they are now available again. I might see if Iron want them on game-maps or something, I can't really see a CP3 coming out, but it migth be nice for people that make mods to there map to base them on the actual CP map fixed versions.

CP3 is definately coming. But there's no ETA on it yet.

I asked for these file a while ago but they were thought lost back then. It was just foro ur simple Field wall jumping fix.

Could you post them in the server owners subforum? Someone can thjen sticky them .
