Yes scrin you are banned you lamo that is why you can't get in.

Because they are all using an advanced block script so you can't do that barge hack into the game once you are in.

Was probly for advantage skins that you got banned for, though I dunno for sure. And also, the negotiating port with server thing is quite common. I remember there was a guide for fixing it somewhere, but I forgot where.

What? He obviously has advantage skins. That bright yellow sniper in his sig would stick out like a sore thumb.

Also, could you ever play on the MP-gaming server in the past? Maybe it just hates you.

Skills have nothing to do with his skins, infact, it's his counter to certain skills... if a sniper tries to hide somewhere, under the normal skin, the sniper is then mostly invisible; with his bright skins, he/she is not, hence on his screen, and his screen only, the sniper is visible and he thus gains an advantage.
