You can go through the tunnels or use a tank of some kind. Then, blow up the AGT or the power plant..woolaa..free access!

Try having a distraction at the front door of their base while you go through the tunnel and explore their little neighborhood... That is... if anyone is willing to be that front door distraction. There is always a problem with teamwork online... very sad...

the easy way is just 2 send 3 flame tanks run right up 2 AGT and melt it OR fill and Apc full and drive up the the door, unload everyone and plant a C4 on it does not matter who are inside cuz the Apc can take about 4-5 ppl including the driver and that's enough C4's to take out a full health
