We have two seperate serials, so when he cheats and gets all of his nicks banned then that is his fault and not mine and I will I have all of my nicks just fine because I don't believe in hacking and that other forms of bull crap cheating.

So I guess I am talking about getting rid of all of my nicks.

So you can get a clean serial with no nicks attached to it? I am not sure how to do that except to break the CD and get a new game.

Delete each nick individually. Check the sticky in the renegade client subforum.

you will no longer be able to use those nicks if you delete them.
