So, you think you're a good mapper eh? Know your polygons from your planes? It's time to prove it!

<http://WWW.MP-Gaming.COM> is running a competition open to anyone.

Check here for details: <http://www.multiplayerforums.com/index.php?showtopic=3729>

even more incentive to build a map

I was thinking about it, but mine would probably get ridiculed. I'm planning on doing a Survival map for Reborn

Where are the files for the buildings and such you want used? And would regular level edit work or is there a special one for reborn?

renardin released the buildings in this thread here:

<http://www.renegadeforums.com/index.php?t=msg&th=27322&start=0&rid=3415>

Level edit would work with it if you made some registry changes, however there is a working version that points to reborns always.dat with the client download, here:

<http://www.game-maps.net/index.php?action=file&id=1024>

Those buildings are neither rigged nor textured, and without proxies.

Right click -> Unhide all

The walls are just place holders, they have a proxy setup under them. The models are just there to show you where it's going to be.

They are textured.

I might take a stab at that, provided that there's really money to be earned in this.

The reward really isn't worth the time of making a good map, lets say you make 7 Dollars an hour at your job. If this map takes you any longer then 14.29 hours, you are losing money.

As long as it works with the current release, and as long as it isn't one of the already existing ones, sure. Why not?

That's why it's called "free time". No one's making any money making Renegade maps anymore anyway, not under usual circumstances.

I was trying to make a reborn map, but the time limit of two weeks i find is extremely short to make a quality map. Would be nice if the time limit was extended atleast an extra week or two so more people can atleast have a chance at this and have more then one or two maps even contriubted lol. I can't make the deadline but i am still trying to.
