DUDES!!! I just had an idea, and I bet someone already had this and tried it, but lets see anyways. You know how you can jump on top of a vehicle? Well, get a stealth tank or a flame tank, buy a nuke beacon, jump from the Hand of Nod windows, and land on top of said vehicle. (If at all possible) Plant the nuke beacon on top of it and drive it to their base. As soon as you hear the air raid siren, ram it against a structure. Probably won't work, but funny as hell to think about.

If you put a beacon on a vechile as soon as it drives off the beacon just floats right whre it is. But you can get to the top of the airstrip tower by haveing a vechile shuttle you over from the Hand of Nod to the platform thing.
