u know that u dont really need to spend a lot of money to get a bunch of stanks or flame tanks together to destroy a base

just get yourself a cheap humvee (350$ in most servers) and buy a hotwire and just drive to the oponnet's base but be sneaky about it, u can bring a 2nd person using the 2nd slot to make it even more lethal

then u just apply all the c4 you have and wait awhile and boom the building is dead and its GG for the other team unless ur team is noob

Buggy rushes work also of course and here's an example of one(I know this ss doesn't relate to the topic that much but I saw my chance to show this ss and used it):

Actually, I've played in games where a humvee rush did throw the game into chaos.

(This is because it lagged the fuck out of the server)
