What happened? Is this just temporary?

Working now, the domain name is not owned by me but by a friend.

He's renewed it now, so all working again, this thing kinda sneaked up on us.. I only checked when it was about to expire a while ago.. time flys fast.

So.. back online again, sorry for the little problem.

Okay, thanks.

Also, I hope to see Nod Survival (version 1.2) on Game-Maps.NET soon because people are downloading the wrong version and crashing out of the main server. >_<
