Model your own

Gun without Paying for it

Better a free gunmodel and that someone gets his skin than someone that is doing nothing.

the turbosquid site isn't there for nothing dumbRockz. Why create your own weapon model if its already existing and downloadable for free? I love to make models but I only make stuff which I can't find to download

1. You're an impatient bastard.
 2. Go learn the skills to do it yourself. Otherwise, nobody will really pay much attention to your whining and such, because all I can get from this topic is that you want someone to do a bunch of work for you. That's not the way the world works.
