That I have been lurking this forum for five years now, I mean seriously I still check these forums everyday, even though I don't play Renegade anymore and have no care to play it. But it also makes me realize what a shit hole this place has become, I barely find myself posting here anymore unless it is to insult someone with poor grammar or a skewed life style. I wish we could go back to when posts discussed the next new level design or mod coming out, the way it was before Aircraftkiller went bonkers on us. But it won't happen and this post will inevitably sink to the bottom of the page and disappear under a mindless pile of crap.

I don't think anyone can disagree and mean it. I haven't been here for as long as you although I did have another account here 6 months or so before I registered this one. I think the main problem is the lack of any new people that register here and have reasonable input. All I see is new people making useless points that aren't even worth thinking about let alone reading or replying to.

Yeah, it's exactly stuff like that that helps to send this joint right to hell.

But you do have a point. It seems like every second topic devolves into who has 'more of a life' argument these days, with each post crammed with such biting wit like, "LUK IN TEH MEEROR" or "you = FAIL at life" .

Get rid of spam section, delete useless posts right away when they appear that have "you = fail" etc... stuff with them, and ban all the idiots, and you have a much more mature community.

A) (more certain) Renegade 2007 (Or Renegade-X as they are known now, I think)

B) BHS or similar get the engine source code

Yeah I think those two options are about right. I'd love to see W3D get the source code, so BHS can renew this engine.

But if not, option one is always available.

Yeahh. It's annoying seeing the trolls be free and happy. It just gives people the impression "HEY LOOK! A FORUM I CAN TROLL, TOO. LOL TIEM TO SHOW DEM MAI INTERNETZ SKEELZ!11".

Even though I havn't posted here too much in the past, I have also just lurked here aswell. It's annoying how retarded people have become as of late. And the majority of the "NO U FAIL" is because some faggot starts some shitfest.

Example:

trooprm02: LOOOOOOOL U MUST BE PREEEEEEETTY GOOD IRL!!

some random person who's better than troop: Yes I do you faggot, and having to constantly say that shit just proves you're probably a miserable lonely little faggot.

Then the shitfest ensues.

So I'd say the root of the problem is the people who start it all. How the hell rocko's topics get FIVE FUCKING PAGES FULL OF BULLSHIT IS JUST BEYOND ME.

Seriously, the banhammer needs to start being laid down. Getting tired of this shit.

i agree with some people....someone new comes...and then all the people here have to say is talk shit...or say something rude as i saw in the mod forums someone already was calling a new guy a bastured and etc then we got a few guys who don't get along and fight in the post.....and spam section is bad as well ppl post topics everywhere and expect it to be moved to spam forum.... and then the fight break out and etc...

main point is people need to stop spamming-people need to stop fightingpeople NEED TO STOP BEING ASSHOLES!!!!-

get to the point answer the questions with manners and respect and everything should be ok in my eyes

1. Empty spam section so people see their post count go down
  2. All forum users that want to see something done should start using the "report" function. Only 2-3 people actively use it at this moment and then it's usually only when they get offended. Do know that we cannot follow every single topic (though we're trying our best). I can't believe people still are complaining that no sanctions exist for people crossing the line. There have been 4 temporary and 2 permanent bans due to excessive behaviour in the last 3 months
  3. Do not read the spam forums and heated discussion forums if you don't want to see ... spam and insults. It's so obvious, yet not done
  4. Enjoy renforums.com

You should implement the smartness system they use on Facepunch forums. It gives everyone a number, positive or negative, based on how good their posts are spelling and grammar wise, and can be influenced by what other people rate you as. Don't quote me, but I think people with a low enough smartness (something like -1000, considering you can lose 5 for each word spelt stupidly) are auto-banned!

It makes for a very good forum for a game where there are a hell of a lot of losers.

But yes, since I joined this forum has only gone downhill.

Edit: But the projects that are going on are certainly going uphill! I intend to buy UT3 soon for RenegadeX and Canadacdn, shouldn't it be about Roleplay8 by now? I remember the days of BETA2!

Not that I know this community too well, but from what I've seen and from my half a year or so (give or take) of lurking before registering, this community seems to be a very "free to do as you please whatsoever" type with the backing that "censoring" and "punishing" is wrong. Rules and moderation are just about nonexistent. Freedom is good, but the lack of those two things drove this place down, and trolls and flaming thrive. Spam section are never good ideas on forums (IMO). I will admit though, the problem seems to be a BIT better than when I first started lurking.

It should finally get finished this year and named Roleplay2008 then (and please, a .mix again!). I mean the dev team takes almost as long as the Reborn dev team ^^.

For the full mods, Reborn, APB and Renegade-X will survive. TBH, the last one could be the first one to be released as a final. Maybe C&C Farcry will survive too...

Yes, times have changed. Technically, it got better and better. Renegade is at its highest state now. Some good people on this Forum left, other are constantly bashing on others who aren't 100% familiar with grammar, who are thinking separated from the mainstream etc.

I loved to read about ACKs' comeback. The forum has become very quiet over the last years. On the other side I miss the big final things like the long-awaited RG1.04 and a CP3. What annoys me, are unfinished projects (even I have some and I am working hard on them) for the community. I don't know much to write about in the next Ren Universe status report which I usually release every May...

I find it odd that people are constantly saying there is zero moderation, when I know that me, Crimson, and Gozy moderate DOZENS of posts EVERY DAY.

Crimson created the spam forum in hopes that people who just have uncontrollable urges to post pictures of LOLcats and the like can do it there, instead of us having to constantly delete and move their posts from the serious areas of the forums. Yet the spam section seems to piss everyone off, by its very existence?

Anyhow I can assure you that these forums are actively moderated. I personally log in first thing in the morning, a couple of times while I am at work, and several times during the night before I go to bed.

Granted, there is probably a bit more "horseplay" here than there used to be, but like I said, all things Renegade have been rehashed a thousand times already, so all there is to talk about is the current active mods, rumors, etc. If everyone were not allowed to swear, say "lol", or joke around now and then, they wouldn't bother coming back.

A good project to me that any team makes is one where instead of releasing big things every year or so, they release tiny updates whenever possible and gradually enhance gameplay.

There should never be a real "finished" release of anything, mostly because that just usually means they gave up on updating it.

I feel this may be a bit directed at me since I was the one to say it.

I don't know how much or how little moderation goes on. I guess it would have been more appropriate to say little SEEMS to go on, which can be both a good and bad thing, depending on how you see it.

As for spam forums, that point itself could be a debate of it's own. I'm not bothered by it's existence. I was just commenting that, IMO, I dislike them based upon what I've seen of them elsewhere. If it's worked for you guys and has cut the spam levels in other forums, then go with what works for you.

Cheesesoda is no troll. I can see why he tried to ignore you. :S
At least, the majority of people that post (probably including me) troll a hell of a lot more than he does.

And I agree on the slow painful death part. Sad but true.

I BLAME EA

GoztowQuote:I know, it doesn't die. That's the best part of watching it die. Every time it starts to dwindle, there's an influx of trolls.

This proves I'm a troll, how? Stating a fact hardly proves that I'm a troll.

If you're focusing on the "best part of watching it die", then perhaps you should work on your comprehension of the English language. Never did I imply that I try to speed up the death of these forums. Merely being a spectator doesn't mean that I'm an active participant. In fact, if you weren't so blind, you'd see that it's been my attempt for several years to help piss off the trolls to run them off these forums.

Edit: If you'd pay more attention to the Heated topics, you'd see that I'm nowhere near being a troll.

By "trying to piss off" trolls, you just feed them more argument. The only correct way to react against trolls is to ignore them and report them to the moderators.

And my knowledge of the English language is sufficient to understand that you actually seem to find it funny watching these forums "die", as you state it.

Nah, you eventually piss them off enough that they quit. There's also been a good track record of turning trolling idiots into quality members. Dave Anderson is an exceptional example of this, but he's not the only one.

Finding something funny doesn't prove that I troll. Perhaps I'm a bit sadistic because of it, but that doesn't mean I'm a troll.

I'll try to find a different noun for it.

To long didn't read.

I don't see a reason to post on this forum if I would not play this game.
You should try playing this game again then you have stuff to talke about.

I've been playing on n00bstories again lately, the game is still somewhat fun but I rather play CoD or Forza 2 on my 360. I'm just waiting for Tiberium to come out it will be nice to see the CnC universe on the unreal 3 engine other than RenegadeX (which will be awesome.)
