I don't like bud. I just can't stand the feeling. Even if I did, I'm already doing too much harm to my lungs with my Luckies, and I like my memory. D:

Memory loss from marijuana is temporary.

It's supposed to be when your high.

But I've noticed I cant remember shit that I used to remember.
And it's getting worse.

I can't remember stuff over the course of 10 seconds... and that has nothing do with any sort of outside influence...

I was just born that way <_<

It's not only when you're under the influence. If you're a chronic smoker, short-term memory loss stays with you for 6-8 weeks after you quit.
