Just keep pelting him with the laser rifle, if you're lucky, he'll keep jumping on the upper level and try to smash you, and keep moving.

I know there are a couple of topics about this mission, but...Mission 5-I have no problem saving Deadeye, but just up the road after you destory the NOD Flametank, Hotwire broadcasts a radio message and the inexplicably dies. How can I save her when I haven't even reached her position yet?

she's the first person that you should save. dn't go any further, go back to where you start, she's somewhere around there. you can't see here because sh'e in a building with some fallen ceiling blocking the door way. look at the radar and the pointer on top right. it should show you where she is. btw, don't save deadeye 1st coz you have to protect him or he'll be dead.

Just keep on shooting him with the Personal Ion Cannon It takes a while (on normal), but it's the fastest way.

Aim for the head and keep backpedalling. I used up all my Ion Cannon shots, and all my laser, and all my chaingun (mostly because of poor marksmanship) and I ended up with 60 something health.

He caught me a few times as I was pelting him with the laser rifle. Then he went to the center platform and kept jumping from the floor to that ceiling fixture. At that point I switched to ion cannon and nailed him 3 or 4 times. Dead. I couldn't figure out if he got stuck in some kind of loop or if he just does that at a certain point. I will say if he gets you and throws you and you aren't near a wall.. WOW he throws you faaar.But judging from some of the bugs and some of the ..cough

AI cough I figured he got broken somehow.

You are MISSING deadeye. If you get to the flametank you went too far. Right before the flametank, there is a building surrounded by 2 APCs and a Lt tank. He is in the building on the 2nd floor.

I've never had any of these problems???maybe there are some NOD road blocks, interfering with things, because I provided cover for Dead Eye, while on rough to the meeting position, and he came under fire, from Mendoza and some other NOD troops.Fortunately I had "aquired" a NOD flame tank, he,he.-----"Inferior tactics detected" – Cabal"By the way, missile launch detected!" – Cabal

If they die, it's only because you went too far... Hotwire is strait at the beginning, just blow the wall with c4... and deadeye is un a huge building surrounded by nod forces...
