I do not cheat, never done

yesterday i was kiked from infantry only for hax, i did not receive any page requesting a test, or a warning, if some one say something about a test on genearl chat i did not see it but i was not paged, if so i will like to see prove and scripts of pages sent.

i recently resign from my position as a mod at xphaze, because i feel xphaze is like hugo chavez, you get your post or topics deleted if the owner does not like it, i felt this is a regime where the free expresion is not allowed, I hope this wont get deleted, may be it will and i will be baned because some one cant take the truth and heat.

I was kiked because i become a better sniper, in infantry only i was allways the best, the one with the most points and recs, but i was a bad sniper, after resigning as a mod, i have been playing in diferent servers and i learn what i have not learn in years at xphaze, that makes a diference and some people can not take it, for my old friends this is an explanation in case u think i cheat, you deserve that, you may not have a chance to read this because the dictatorship may deleted.

yonie is the owner and any one who acused him of cheating allways get baned or kiked and was not allowed to post at forums, it happen over and over, admins even left the server for similar reason.

i think he does something , i never ask for a test from him because he is the owner and he has full power but after playing with him many times i found many red flags and is not only me, many other complain about the same thing.

with a volt he just have to touch your head one or two seconds before you are dead even if you are a havoc.

sniping he never miss, before u turn that corner u are already dead, i never seen that in any sniper server.

he sees sbh from far as it happen yesterday when he killed me with a soldier or sbh he kills havocs or 1k caracters in seconds this is very unfair that i got kiked without a warning, when i was playing fairly but yet he does all that and no one can say anything about him, I dont need an explanation from him, to me and to others it's very obvius that soemthing it's going on.

yonie if you whant to baned me from forums and from the game just for talking about this go ahead and use any excuse, i feel better and i have the ball to say it at least.

and in case i get baned

<http://www.xphazegaming.com/forum/index.php?showtopic=8882>

i like playing infantry only, but after all this its very frustrating, now i know why many left and how they felt when they say something about it.....

note am not being rude or disrespectfull am only adressing some issues on the renegade comunity!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

1. TL;DR
2. You're American, yet you seem to know next to nothing about English grammar and composition. Yes, it's the Internet, but if you're to expect us to read your piece, we shouldn't have to work at it.
3. Why do we care?

Well, you're in America. Your location and IP confirms this. You should have a better understanding of English than you do. I'm not a complete nationalist, so I'm not going to claim you should have near-perfect grammar and composition skills before you enter the country, but it might be a good idea to mention English being a second language.

Well, there's some things like punctuation and capital letters that are the same in all languages, yet you don't seem to put any effort in using them.

I don't know x-phaze. One thing I know is that the one who pays for the server has all right on them. If you don't like what he does, then you should find another server. There's plenty .

Just because they are the server owner(s) does not mean they are obliged to follow the rules they have created. Their position of power gives them a perfect niche for them to do whatever they feel like doing without getting suspected.

There are many times I have encountered such server owners throughout my Renegade days. And the solution is for you to just turn around and walk out. No use arguing about it...it is their server and there really is no way to "bring em to justice."

There are several strong communities out there for you to break into. I understand how it feels to be banned from a server you are used to playing in but that is reality.

Good news is there are a lot of good servers (where your skills will be appreciated) and lots of new friends for you to make. So don't take this loss too hard.

Like what does that have to do with the topic? Unless you haven't noticed, this is RENEGADEforums. And his English, though shrewn with errors, was quite understandable nevertheless.

I'm not really paying attention so much to why you left x-phaze, as your insinuation that I have to be worldly to be mature, and somehow wishing that proper punctuation being used is an absurd request. As Goztow mentioned, punctuation is pretty much universal.

FIXED

it was bad ass....

then yonnie fucked it up...

what i think happen is yonnie was a good player but thens started cheating and needed to cheat to keep up his skill everyone knew he had

but now i know tons of people including mods on his own server that say they seen him use hacks and refill in field

i had friends tell me later they came in with hacks to use against him to watch him like one time he ran somewhere where someone was going when no one was around and he followed the person go to another tunnel entrance then went back to the first spot and all this was on field the person watching him was on gdi and yonnie was in tunnels going where he was going but could not see him he has *cheat name removed*on biatch caught him like 25 times and he says its lag.....and thats not even including the ss and fraps people have of him when the first yonnie cheating thing started and now the servers dead and he says it cause they cant handle it when every one tells me is cause of him.....now he fired lot of good mods for bitch ones and fucked the server now the admins run it all and they slow or never around now we got bad fucking rules sucky mods cause they took everything out cause they think ssgm has all these glitches when its really the way it should be and irc is empty with like 6 people everyday 3 autojoin 2 are bots and ones 1 anyone else be happy if they join...

most mods and even normal players are long gone and xphaze went to hell....also including he wont run rg he wont run new scripts after he said he will then found out *cheat name removed*wont work on them and never ever will get them or test and iv seen him hack myself hes a cool person in real life just some lay back redneck but in the gaming world hes trash which is ok for me cause idk about hackings because real life they could be the nicest person in the world hope this helps idk if i can say it any better

then yonnie fucked it up...

what i think happen is yonnie was a good player but thens started cheating and needed to cheat to keep up his skill everyone knew but now i know tons of people inc mods on his own serv that say they seen him use hacks and refill in filed....and i had friends tell em later they came in with hacks and told me they was watching him cheat by using hacks to watch him like ran somewhere when no one was around and he followed then went back and he went back then spectate killed them....inc biatch caught him like 25 times and he says its lag.....and thats not even inc the ss and fraps they had of him when the first yonnei cheating thing started and now the servers dead and he says it cuase they cant handle it when eVERYONE tells me is cause of him.....now he fired lot of good mods for bitch ones and fucked the server u now the admins run it all and they slow or never around now we got bad fucking rules sucky mods cause they took everything out cause they think its a glitch when really its ssgm which fixes the glicthes now you have a great server thats more dead them anything else and irc is empty with like 6 people everyday 3 autojoin

2 are bots and ones 1 anyone else be happy if they join...most mods and even normal players are long gone and xphaze went to hell....also inc he wont run rg he wont run new scripts after he said he will then found out rghj wont work on them and never ever will get them or test and iv seen him hack myself hes a cool person in real life just some lay back redneck but in the gaming world hes trash which is ok for me cuase idk about hackings because real life they could be the nicest person in the world

I dont remember you being around when it was real badass... i'm talking about 3 years back now i came like 4 weeks before the yonnie cheating thing...i had more then 1 nick u know lol

Clan drama is so retarded and pointless.

That is all.

#1 Yonnie did screw up the server, and I loved playing there.

#2 yes, I did suck at playing, but still noone should have had as much 'skill' as he did.

#3 Havok I feel ur pain, bro.

#4 I dont really care that much about this kinda crap anymore since I left renegade due to this sorta crap.

Oh, I have.

thats what this is for:

I just ban there @$$3$, and they cant come back till they pay $20 for a new steam ID

I think we should all just stop trying to revive a dead game until EA fixed there Shiate. Or until they release the source code so we can fix it.
