I'm not sure which level you're referring to.Is it the one where you have to rescue the Dead-6, including Hotwire, Gunner and such? The really big level that takes place in a village and you meet up with local resistance fighters along the way?To find the people there, simply follow your objective compass (the thing on the upper-right hand corner of your screen). It'll lead you to the various people.Sometimes you may have to backtrack a little, and if so, the in-game EVA map (push "M") will help you find your way around.Does any of that help?

They are not actually in the shower room. The objective compass is misleading.They are actually UNDER the shower room, but to get there, you have to go through another place.Go back into the castle and head for the dining area. Near there will be a security door that requires level 1 (green) security access. Go through and you'll find the scientists.If you need the green keycard, find stairs that lead upwards. Get to the very top of the castle and you'll see a control room filled with computers. The keycard should be there.[ March 05, 2002: Message edited by: just_ignore_me ]

The green key card is in the control rooms computer which just happens to be your first objective, and that big room just happens to be called a DINNING HALL.P.S. just to spoil it you only get the good lookin' lady mobius and she checks out havoc's ass, dirty little b*tch.

Ha, I know the level and there's a bug with little ol' EVA's compass.If you don't follow it, and skip along into the rest of the village it will skip, and you won't be able to find them.That aside here are some of the teams locations;1.) hotwire is dead ahead of you in the corner use the C4 to clear the rubble, as you'll need the C4 for later, to take at tanks and choppers.2.)continue into the village, whenever you come to a small hut with doors run upto the doors and they'll open revealing resistance cell members that can and will assist you. If at any time you see a civie with the enter sign above go and talk to them as they will give you info and extra objectives.3.)Gunner is in the town square hiding in a snipers hut. The place is being bombed so don't stay in the open or the hut, like me as it really does hurt, intsead run to the building entrance behind the hut and snipe the place from the open window.4.)if you miss a person they usually find their way to the cathedral anyway, they're kinda like homming pigeons.p.s. heres a tip, if you run right upto the flame tanks, then backwards as drives at you, you can stay in between it's two flame jets and avoid being burnt to a crisp, also the chain gun is great for these guys as their armor is p*ss ass weak.
