Justine Henin, who absolutely dominated female tennis during the last years and must be the most famous Belgian sportive of the moments, has announced today that she ends her sportive carriere.

I suppose most of you know her, she stops now that she's on number one, a spot she has held for over 100 weeks.

I found this pretty shocking. It's just before the French Open, her favourite tournament that she's won for the last three years in a row.

I will really miss seeing her, she is such a talented tennis player. She plays tennis similar to how it used to be played, before power was everything (although she has plenty of power too). Also, it means there will be nobody else in the top ten with a single handed backhand. Henin's backhand is a thing of beauty, whether down the line or cross court. Nobody else on the women's tour plays like her, it sucks.

i would rather watch Maria play aswell but her screaming annoys the hell out of me, so i watch with no sound on.

sometimes like at the end of the match it literally sounds like she is having a freaking orgasm on the court. imagine bringing your kids to a tennis match and having them watch that lol.

and no unlike some of you i dont sit there and fantasise... i actually enjoy watching tennis. Andre Agassi FTW!

too bad he retired

What makes you think she'd go near you, much less care about your trivial existence? Don't be a pretentious ass and think that you'd ever get a piece of a woman with that prestige.

What makes you think she'd go near you,

A lot of reasons, I'm a nice person in general.

Aircraftkiller wrote on Fri, 16 May 2008 06:18 much less care about your trivial existence?

But we've never met so technically she doesn't know I exist.

Who the hell said I would? did I? because I must have been on a high dosage of dopamine to say that.

But buddy, Ever heard of a joke?
