Now, the whole family may have the chance to pole dance, including your jailbait sister, and your mother.

I kinda guessed when the Wii came out that it would come to this. Next will be cyber sex (except you make the moves physically while standing in front of your TV).

Why buy a 250-300 quid console and a 30-40 quid game/will pole thing when you can go to your local DIY store and buy a pole for less then 10 quid?

How? You dislike the idea of your girl friend pole dancing in your living room?! (assuming you've got one)

I don't like pole-dancing. It's degrading of the female gender, in my eyes. If the girl likes it, that's fine, but I don't.

I don't see how it would be degrading to women.

I think it is the other way around, I mean something that women can do that men can't (unless you are gay or "bi-curious") If any thing it is degrading to men.

The only other way I can see it degrading at all is if you are against the human appearance/look.

I'm game. So long as the balls don't touch - that would be gay.

Won't work due to jet lag (depends on who is traveling). And it will be 2 flights with a stopover in Washington DC OR Philadelphia OR New York City EITHERWAY. And then ground travel time (bus, train, taxi) and their expenses. Too much cost for one good night of fun, I say!

LMAO

Then come for the weekend or hell just stay a while week. You could get a direct flight into Mitchell International (Milwaukee) btw.

Also, do we really need two? There has to be a multiplayer or something for that thing. I don't have two wii's.
