Does anybody know where I can get free AVI and MP4 movies that I can put on my new Sansa Fuze from SanDisk?

You can't get free movies, unless they were created for non-profit.

Ultimate Utopia XXIII is a fun video game parody (about 11 minutes long). Hopefully your video player can take .wmv or .m4v, since the only other versions at youtube/google video are .flv...

I have this same problem, I own a fuze and it will not let me take an AVI movie and put it on there. It says that the format is unsupported.

It you read the specs on the Fuze the AVI video format is not supported, try converting it to MP4 using the following guide(please ignore the fact this is from the Sansa View section converting video using this guide should work fine for the Fuze also):
