What has the arrow got to do with this?

BTW jpg compression should not be used for vector/solid-block coloured/ cartons. Use PNG or GIF instead to avoid ugly compression artefacts.

Example of an easily noticeable artefact from your cartoon.

EDIT: Sorry, I just realised your intentions were good. Smothering EA! lol kidding

You know these are supposed to be read from right to left, right?

Fuck. This was pretty much the first one I tried to do so I probably fucked up several times.
However, I can't bring myself to care about the artifacts or whatever, seriously. It's not meant to be some super high resolution photo for jacking off to.

Oh well.

You all get the point.
