I've noticed due to my Firefox media player plugin, someone has an mp3 link to the "Spam up" song which is commonly known of the Spam product adverts in the UK.

So, who's the one who is so retarded to put that in their sigs or posts or whatever?

I don't have that plugin, I don't think... I have 3 firefox instances I use (desktop, laptop booted to Mac, laptop booted to Windows) and it only shows up on my laptop booted to Windows... hmmm...

Not exactly, it just displays a little icon which you can click to open a pannel to play, pause, repeat the track, etc. Flash based, quite good at its job too.
