Hehe, well remember beta testers will only be chosen if they go to our site regularly and sign up of course.

The Beta Testers only job is to test out the demos/game before it is released for public use.

Actually it will be,

it's going to be a completely brand new game.

If we get a team going the mod could be completed hopefully less than a year, the whole mod!

But it ultimately depends on peoples dedication to the mod.
