Most likely not. I think a long time ago we decided not to include bots for whatever reason.

I doubt it. We've left the airstrip (now located on the runway at the military base) in place so drop mods can be used, enabling you to drop bots if you wish.

The Trailer looks really cool, but RP2 without players and idiots isnt really fun hope we get more
RP2 Players, maybe we could open a RenegadeForums City Server

Maybe allow only one RolePlay2 server so all the people could join it and it would be fun

We can't just NOT allow people to host it, whoever wants to can, and seeing as we're distributing the map for free, there's not much we can do to stop them.

If one server is obviously better than the rest however, I'd think that most people would join that server.
