Lots of people are having truble with this mission I don't know why, hopefully its not a BUG. So you have the flame tank and you are approaching the obelisk, you tell Hotwire to meet in the Cathedral, hmmm, maybe there are some NOD troops giving trouble or maybe Mendoza, I hate him, he's stupid.Maybe look around for NOD units, or check to see if it is a time factor thing, like she is already under attack.Or just restart the mission thats what I did on the Ship level, what ever it was called.Good Luck...-----"Inferior tactics detected" – Cabal"By the way, missile launch detected!" – Cabal

I read in a number of reviews of Renegade that this mission has a timer. If you don't reach the cathedral quickly enough you lose and there is no explanation.If I remeber correctly, the flame tank is very close to the end though you still have a little more "work" to do.

Hotwire's not getting killed... you're letting the missile launchers blow up. Those two trucks at the end of the map there... guard those!!
