So, this elite sniper was fighting us in Islands. 2v1...and he was doing good.

And the other guy was owning me bad. I asked him how he do it, I woulkd not even see him but he would be right around the corner...then we will get shot and die.

After finally asking him a thousand times, he said it was somthing to do with Zoom. But I have trouble understanding...how does it work?

He said it is super-fast with Zoom when shooting around corners....hmmm, I don't understand. It s asuper hugging trick when sniping.

!help

Zoom/scope has been known to stuff up walking/running animations but that won't cause such speedy shots. He probably uses it as an excuse to cover up the fact he has a slow connection.

prolly just invisible hug, is a glitch where you can hug and wall and not be seen by the enemy due to renegade being laggy.

That's what it is...I think.

Soory I should have been more clear, he DID NOT have speedy shots...just that we will get shot while we could not see him: invisible hug

My question is how is the zoom/scope work with invisible hug?

you just have to V and crouch whilst wall hugging, a lot of snipe servers see it as glitch abuse. Its hopefully one of those things that won't be possible once the new patch is done.

If you go in scope mode (hence the zoom) and face the wall whilst standing behind it you can go in and out pretty quickly and hit the enemy without them being able to see you. However doing this without being scoped is even quicker.

nunega, you dont have to crouch to wall hug correctly ;/

just aim your shots with V or whatever your freeaim is set to while you're in third person behind the wall, then pop out quickly, if you do it just right, the only part of your body that will show is a portion of your foot, you get it down with practice-

I don't even use V (FreeAim) to snipe. Never have and I never liked it.

It screws snipe. BUT if u use sprayers (automatic weps) u   third person and V (especcially if u have patch or LCG) pawkynodsoldierguy?

hugging is a tactic that uses ren's glitches to aid in sniping; it's a crock of shit
