Check the FAQ sticky in the "renegade client"-subforum. Yes: there's still plenty of servers and players.

Sometimes reading the Message of the day will give you a reason why you aren't connecting.

Plenty of people are still playing C&C Renegade, as well as plenty of servers are online.

500 players total on "Westwood Online"

It counts mods and other Westwood online games.

No...

<http://renguard.com/> says 1311 unique players have logged into Renguard in the past 24 hours, and as far as I'm concerned most people don't even use Renguard anymore.

I think 500 people playing at a time sounds rational, but it's definitely at least a couple thousand who play on a daily basis.

About 500 people connect through WOL at a time. This is counting Renegade, APB, Reborn, and any other Renegade mod.

However, it doesn't count people who connect through direct connection.

And there's also about 150 at a time using Gamespy.

Don't worry. There are plenty of people still playing Renegade online. Westwood Online may be deceased (that means their server won't work if you try going to it; they stopped hosting games online for Renegade quite a while ago), but Gamespy Arcade still works. Here are the following steps: 1. Make sure you're online (pretty obvious) 2. click on Gamepsy after you choose online multi-player on the Renegade menu 3. download Gamespy Arcade 4. create your login and stuff like that 5. login your account 6. click on "my games" on the sidebar and choose "Renegade". 7. then press multi-player at the top right corner 8. double-click the server you want to go on and you're done!

By the way, I still play myself. If you see "WolfWarrior2", that's me. Send me a message so I know what you call yourself on Renegade.

Westwood online still works..It just isn't hosted by westwood per se.

Wow...im pretty sure ive said this like 3-4 times in the past month, player count breakdown:

Online: 700-800 (before the summer jan-may it was 600-700) online at any given point, 500-600 on WOL, 100-200 on GSA.

Total: 10,000-15,000 unquipe players still play C&C Renegade.

Check your renegade data folder. If you have any files named objects.ddb, delete them. That might be why you can't see servers.

What I have noticed tho, is that the bigger servers are getting more players than they usually do meanwhile the smaller servers are seeing less players.

p.s: is the flag system broken? Im pretty sure we dont have t-mobile in canada lol...

Most of the time the MOTD on games are a load of crap and don't say anything useful so most people ignore them. But this guy kinda comes off as a "I will only post once in this forum" kind of guy.

But if you are getting no server listings, you should read that message because it tells you what is wrong.

It will say something like "Failure to connect. Invalid serial" or something similar.

Same thing, actually.
