Hello all, please help me I am stuck on the Ship (Level STOWAWAY) I solved all objectives except two primary obj. yet. I still have to protect the prisoners (but there just standing at the u-boat now) nobody attacks them anymore. Also I can't find the captain to get the U-boat security card. I have already the green, yellow and red card. Maybe it's because I squeezed earlier in the game through a yellow door because the door was blocked from a NOD soldier body, I didn't have the yellow card than... Is this a program bug? Please please help me. Thanks a lot Andreas null

The captain is all the way in the front of the ship, all the way up. There's a maze of stairs, simply go up as much as you can. Kinda hard to find; I played the level three times and still get lost there.

Yes that is a bug going through the yellow door without the yellow key. The red key card is the sub card. The order you suppose to do the mission is 1. sabotage the SAM 2. sabotage the engine 3. obtain the green key card from an officer. He is up the tiberium room to the deck then go up and before you see the green door. 4. kill the first mate to get the yellow card. 5. Sabotage the torp 6. kill the captain to get the red card. 7. destroy the chopper wipe out all the possible Nod on the ship before continue on 8. rescue the prisoner 9. protect the prisoner I went through the yellow door without the key and the mission just won't end just like you. I did it in the above order the game ends in one go. Hope that will help you.

Okay...I have ALL the keycards, the prisoners are just standing at the sub and when I place c4 on the torpedo racks and detonate, nothing happens. Any ideas?!?!?!?!?!?!?!?!?!?!?

keep in mind, once you have the sub key(who uses a key to start a sub) and you have protected the prisoners, you need to interact with one of them to get them moving. go up to the one with the arrows flashing and hit e to talk to him

Seriously, you just get in front of them and press 'E'. And with the prisoners, I don't remember exactly, you did free them before trying to communicate with them did you?

Okay....I've tried hitting the action key all over the torpedo racks and just about every weapon except the ion cannon. Yet they still remain. As far as the prisoners, I've tried interacting with them, but not extensively. Unfortunately there is not one with arrows flashing on him. There are 3 prisoners just standing outside the sub. Bah.....
