There should be a thread concerning your issue in that forum.

GSA is in my personal opinion quite bad.

Check the sticky in the renegade client subforum about registering a nick on xwis.

You need to buy the game to get a valid serial. Serials found on the Internet will not work.

The game costs between 5 and 10 $. It's surely worth buying + it will stimulate EA to keep selling it.

Yes, it's true and no: noone will give theirs because if you would get yourself banned, they would be banned as well. Buy the game.

Just go to the bargain bin at your local video games supplier, Renegade and TFD are a staple there
