What are some of your 2 biggest piss offs in ren? my number one just lost a game for me so I'll vent here.

2. Apc douches: Why is it that people buy a apc to beacon/hottie a building and then drive off? I would gladly help cover them, I tell them this, I say hold position, and I shoot at them to stop but no dice, and 90% of the time they get killed.

1. and Number one is Stealth black hands, my god, every game half the nod team buys them and they don't do anything because they don't want to be seen, last game I played complex, our ref was gone and 2 of my 5 team mates spent the last of their money on SBH's, then when GDI came in with tanks to shell us, instead of repairing or even attacking they jumped out of the way shouting "destroy that vehicle" so they wouldn't be seen, lost us the game.

People who are SBH and just stand around snipers waiting for them to die so they get sniper gun, then get killed before killing anyone

people who are SBH and dont do anything people who STEAL vehs from other team that were already stolen parked in bace.....then get the veh killed last game i played, not even 10 min into the game, i manage to steal THREE orcas. I put them behind pp

Then an asshat comes and steals one. it does

he takes another, it dies

I get so pissed off i just leave >.>

100% true acp noobs don't fking listen because they think there so l33t and apc has armor.

Besides they give away the apcs and even fail to plant the beacon.

It doesn't work with heavy tanks. Yeah, you will be taking up the limit. But atleast most valuable and weak vehicles like Orca/Apache and stank.

1. People that snipe every round of every game once they get 1000 credits...and have 30000 credits after a while and refuse to buy a tech or hotwire to save the damned game

2. People that call me a noob because I think 20 mines on the entrance of the barracks is a bad idea...when my mines are killing one SBH every 10 seconds in the tunnels (Islands map mix)

3. People that 'creatively' mine instead of just 4 or 5 on the floor - they have 5 up each doorframe, 3 on the floor, 2 on the ceiling, and 4 easily avoided mines on the floor in front of (or right on) the MCT, and all the rest of the mine limit on the front of the door of the same building. Then ONE freebie infantry walks in, blows them all up, and lives.

4. People that refuse to leave and go AFK for hours and theres no mod on (I did this once, sorry. I had a 45-1 kill ratio without sniping and wanted credit for it AND not be late for work)

5. People that spam radio commands 47 times then get mad because you cant see what anyone on your team is saying from the chat lag.

6. Knowing theres 10 really good players in the server, and every one of them are on the enemy team. Every single round. And you have 4 AFKers and one guy placing C4s in smileyface patterns and another jumping up and down all over the place. You look up and see five SBH all demanding remotes.

7. Starting the game in 16-bit by mistake

8. Server winning the round when you're ahead by a mile

9. Being sniped when you're inside a building in your own base with the doors closed, and the sniper is in their own base.

10. Renguard crashing my game, and cant rejoin because the server is full.

I could go on...

oh yeah, rambo saying "WASTED" every 5 seconds

PTakopa or whoever his name is saying "HAX" as much as rambo says WASTED

1. Ppl who will continue certain vehicle rushes, even if its certain that they will fail with the rush (Marathon server sided view, because you would get points with it anyway on AOW servers).
2. Low SFPS, gay warping, Server reboots/crashes.
3. V Hug fights with 2 snipers (mostly 500 chars) that will just keep hugging until one of the pops out first.

Next to that, I'm slightly getting annoyed by the ppl who complain that I got Stealth Reveal and/or RGH, while I can often just proof that I don't (Fraps, explanations of how i saw them etc).

TIP FOR SBHS ON ISLAND:

DON'T HUG THE SIDES OF THE WATER FRONT ENTRANCE OF THE GDI BASE, IT WILL CAUSE A REALLY CLEAR WATER SPLASH SPAM,WHICH MOSTLY DETERMINES ITS YOU, THE SBH.

Next to that, don't jump with an sbh on water and snow, it will cause the snow/water to splash up, but not so clear as above.

Edit: Nunya, who are you on the Jelly Marathon Server?

TWO biggest pissoffs?

1) REPAIR WHORES!!!!!!! The game is fucking over asswipe. There is no strategic reason to repair. You have only the PP and the other team has not lost one building. You are only preventing a new game from starting - especially annoying if I just joined. Even worse - when a mod comes along and threatens me for TH when I try to stop the repair whores. TH?!?!?! WTF? They are hampering the whole fucking server just to point whore / repair whore. I don't know at that point if the repair whore or the host is more annoying? On rare occasion repair whoring makes sense - such as NOD having one last SBH who is going to beacon the ped - but that is VERY rare...

(BTW - I (SirScooby) invented the term repair whore! People at first thought it was just a crude nickname for Hotwires. Ha!

2) N00bservers. (servers with lame modifications) Especially the servers who allow 120 C4. (I guess 110 just wasn't enough?) But also ones which place base defense in a manner to nerf NOD stealth. Or adding chainguns to hotties. Or sniper only. Or rank systems which make orcas and apaches virtually indestructible, etc. Worst of all - you can't tell until you have already joined most of the time.

ACK!! I can't help myself. Two more;

3) People who don't play as a a team. This results in most of the annoyances which others have already listed such as; the SBHtards (that's right SBHtards - you read it here first!) who contribute nothing because they have no idea how to be a SBH, the Stank pilots who blast at anything as you are trying to sneak a rush somewhere. (not to mention people who buy stanks with no idea how to use them - going head to head with GDI tanks) The snipers who fart around while your base is getting pwned by tanks, the weapon whores, people who don't listen to team commands, etc. etc. etc.

4)Giant servers. Servers with a gazillion players per team where you essentially have no chance to ever even get close to destroying the other base. It ruins the game by removing all strategy and making it just another dull FPS. Especially annoying is when you join a server with only 16-24 people and play your heart out - only to notice after your last APC full of hotties rush failed, that there are now 36 players on the other team.

These things have essentially ruined the game for me. I used to play almost on a daily basis. In the last three months I have played for only about 40 minutes one time. Long enough for each of these annoyances to happen to me and remind me why I don't play anymore.

It would be nice if someone would patch the game. Things which would fix many of the annoyances?

1) Servers should check the box for no building repair. That ends repair whoring. If not that then make engineers cost money - no more end of game repair whores. Or - eliminate the unlimited ammunition in gizmo guns - require refills; That'll slow them down at least a little. Maybe make using the gizmo gun gradually reduce the health of the engineer? That'd do alot to stop the base entrance camping so common to certain maps (field anyone?)

2) SBH should have a timer. The suit will only stay cloaked if you have damaged an enemy unit/structure within the last 90 to 180 seconds. If not - your stealth suit becomes disabled permanently and the SBH will be removed from your terminal menu. For every point of damage you do your timer will be permanently extended by one second.

My BIGGEST piss off, is for maps like Walls Flying or Island (if your on NOD) is how there will be 6 fucking snipers with ramjets, you don't need 6!!! Just have one, the others go and do something worthwhile, and snipers who move back and forth really fast, wtf are they doing?! If you shoot then its maybe 10% less cahnce you hit them and its harder for them moving, its pointless. So everyone who can't snipe should go and do shit not run back and forth trying to hit nothing with 10 other guys.

1. People that block your tank when your trying to retreat, getting it destroyed, then go out of the base and attack the enemy only to get damaged, then get out in the field and get sniped, giving the other team their tank, then start bitching in teamchat that they have no credits and demand donations, so that they can do the same again.

2. People who dont bother to read or ask what the ruels are, and thus break them, so they get kicked, only to come back into the server and/or post on the forums crying mod abuse when the mod was only doing their job, the same kind that go on UNRULES and complain that the mods there do fuck all... which is true, but still, fucking hypocrites.

I agree

Sometimes mods made there mistakes, but they're sorry for that and unlift kick or ban. Actually its friendly-family server, they have to keep it like that. Im half-mod there. (But i agree some of the rules there are way off)

DrasticDR wrote on Fri, 05 September 2008 15:18these things annoy me

- flamethrowers
- chem warriors
- screen shake, friendly screen shake
- pushing me
- anyone running infront of me
- sniping with me
- people who mine in the wrong places
- people who run into mines that don't need running into (espically when i am disarming)
- people who have no chance in killing the enemy with their weapon but scares them away
- people who are determined to kill you throughout the whole duration of the game because you pissed them off earlier
- techs/hotwires with thousands of credits who repair whore the mct when im repairing because i have no credits
- people who give away my position
- standing infront of a building or vehicle when im trying to kill you amen.

PS: i hate advantage skin users, cheaters (building bars and real cheats) too

1. People who are intolerable of other people's cultures
2. The Dutch

so basically you hate yourself.

- 1) People who get pissed cause no one is repairing them all game while they point whore and their the same people will will never mine or repair a building or anyone else ever.
 - 2) Players who stand by a building going down calling for repairs but refuse to trade in their character to repair it even though the bar/hand is still up
 - 3) People who want to quit cause 1 building is gone.
