My hard dirve is a

Seagate Barracuda 7200.7 160GB Serial ATA Hard Drive
Model: ST3160023AS

(Yes i know i can do better but lets forget about that)

I narrowed it down to 4 different types of HDD

People can't click on the links, and it makes more effort than desired. : o

Do those enclosures have reviews?

Try to get something with more air intake, but keep it small aswell. The last thing you want is another box on or under your desk.

The third one looks like a winner in that scenario.
