For those of you stuck on the ship mission, all questions are answered here. The order you should complete the objectives is. Follow this carefully. Some people could not find the captain is due to the bug that you acquired the red card before the yellow card. If you follow this you will be complete the mission in no time. 1. Sabatage the SAM missiles. 2. Sabatage the Engine. 3. Go to the tiberium room there is an elevator that go up to the deck then find a officer with the green card. First go to the side of the ship and you will see stairs. He should be around that area. 4. Kill the First mate to get the yellow card. He is located in the green doors. Just go up once you got the green card and you will meet him. 5. Go back to the sub and then go through the yellow door. Do not attempt to go through the yellow door if you do not have the yellow card or the mission will not end. 6. Sabatage the Torps. 7. Kill the captain to get the Red card. The captain is at the bridge. If you sabatage the Torp first then keep going the stair wall you will find him. 8. Destory the chopper. 9. Kill all the Nod that you can find on the ship. 10. Rescue the prisoners. 11. Protect the prisoners there will be Nod officers spawn close to the sub. Hope this will help you get through the mission. I've an other problem on the SHIP. I hope you can help me out also. I can't find the First Made anywhere. I've played the level for so many times now, it's driving me crazy. Can you please tell me where this First Made is. I've searched every level on board but I can't find him.

I've played the level now for more than 10 times (#@!!*) and it seems that there is no First Made. I even installed the game again because i thought it maybe was a bug by installing the game. Maybe someone can send me the saved level? That would be great!ancoert@planet.nl Many thanks!!!

Go up the tiberium room to the secong level there is another evelvator that goes to the desk. Mostly people did not notice that evelvator. When you are on the deck go the the side of the ship and you should see stairs there. There is doors with green key card and you can pick the card around there. Go through the green door and go up the stairs you will find the first mate(Not MADE) there.
