Have you found sidney???? If not, try not to get in the lab, the keycard is only available once you found sidney! If you found her, the keycard should be in the same place.

right so all u gotta do is go down the tunnel with the tiberium fellas running at ya and go up that left tunnel. You'll be in some kind of pipe then just follow that to get to the reactor core. Watch out stealth black hands are everywhere. Make good use of the respawning health & armor, start making your way up the core killing the black hands on the way. You'll get to a place where there's about 8 stealth dudes above u firing at you, just use the rocket or grenade launcher to wipe em out and go down to the health if u need it. Now get your laser chain gun selected and watch the petrova movie then go down the ramp and kneecap the acolytes and black hands that look 4 u. Once petrova shows her pretty face then get ure Ion Cannon out and aim it at her head. Make good use of the health armor spwan at the bottom. After petrova dies then go back up and get sidney. Grab the red card and go to the left red door. IMPORTANT go through the door first and clear out the black hands in the next room then go back and get sydney (She won't follow u unless u talk to her) Now go through the bottom red card door and kill the stealth guys as sydney activates the lifts. Try and memorize where they come from (in other words deliberately get sydney killed to get a pic of where they come from, remember to save before though!!) Keep going up until Sydney deactivates the nuke missile console (A big white box) then go up the stairs till u reach the surface... MISSION ACCOMPLISHED

Lol, that tunnel with like 50 stealth troopers in it. I'm sorry, In soldier I just couldn't take down that bad mutant and all the enemies at the same time with what little ammo people like me leave themselves with. So I just stood to the right of the doorway you walk into to start the clip, threw 8 remote C4, watched the clip which had my C4 in it, just sitt'n there on the ground, ran down the tunnel a couple of inches, BOOM! all gone, she was left bue the Volt Rifle makes quick work of her once her goons are dead. Lol, there's 8 bricks of C4 on the floor and everybody's just having a nice normal conversation
