One day, the CnC Reborn forum is open for discussion. The next day, they lock every single thread! And so now, nothing can be posted!

P.S. No updates whatsoever have appeared on their website.

If you know why this has happened, PLEASE REPLY!!!

But if you don't, DO NOT REPLY!!!

Gracias! (Spanish lol)

Suddenly we got a new forum. I didn't expect the conversion to be so fast and I didn't expect I wouldn't need the help of anyone. I can't enable again the old forum as it would make this one not up to date so I have to announce it now. Well it's been faster than expected . I checked the number of posts and everything is there, attachments and avatars are also there.

If you have login problems : Renardin@gmail.com

Please report any problems.

Some new features so:

- Friends and ignored people
- Birthday
- No more html for now
- Warning system
- Report system
- etc...

I need to take care of smilies, forum organization (we have more possibilities now) and the forum skin.

So we will have to use the default forum skin for now. The front page will be updated when I get some help from Hexetic.

Thank you.
