Nobody. A moderator (probably gozy) split them to a new topic because of the spam. It's in the heated discussions and debates flamewars section.

Ty gozy for cleaning up my thread (no seriously).

And to everyone else who don't like my skins, I don't give a fuck, BUT I'd rather you keep it to yourself.

Do you want just the ones for walls? The pattern may show up in other levels in wierd places. I have it all over the place, like the buildings in city or in walls canyon. I wasn't quiet finished, but I have not been messing with it much lately.

well, if you open howTO then 'characters' in renegadepublictools folder you can open male.gmax that one contains an animated havoc ^ you can simply change it by converting it to editable mesh open any file that has a l0 at the end is good remember i told you about viewing chars in w3dview that you should open those because they contain the model. for example for havoc c_havoc_l0.w3d

accually, in dutch "pedo" is short for "pedofiel" which is "pedofile" in english, so yeah mad, they all mean the same.

Doesn't matter. The face expression fits anyway and this freakin bear looks crazy enough to rape everything female up to an age of 130 years.

only a year late.

I added this in Feb 25, 2009 11:15 AM, so not a year later and I just realised that this skin belongs to Di3HardNL and not Chew, so both have made the same skin, they look the same to me, hmm.

Hehe, well, I normally update topics when files are added to GM.NET, will have to update the file with your name on it soon.
