Hi

I got something big to ask you.

I have not seen an art forum on here i would like there to be one a lot of people do art around here and spam fest you can't upload stuff to it.

what I'm asking is for an art forum i will be more than happy to mod it so it's less of your hands

The rules of the forum would be.

1.NO PORN

2.do not steal

and any that you would want to add.

it would not only contain art it would be a place for tut's for art like water marking your work that would be a rule as well with a tut so people can learn how to if they don't know already.

This forum is fine the way it is, I think a so called art section would not fit in. No need for it really there are plenty of other places you can share your graphics/tutorials since this forum is more toward modding renegade and community news/support and not graphical design, just my two cents

Well if it has something to do with Renegade then yes the Mod forum is a ideal place to post it considering it is Renegade related, but your first post seems to me like your wanting a graphics/tutorial section?

**Also if you wanted it to be for crimson only why not send a PM?

really i don't know her....
the last place i saw her name was the last time i was on ren when a site popped up on my old forum saying you want a cheat go here and it said made by crimson...

Or said this is crimson's pussy or something like that....

If what you have doesn't fit anywhere else, find a place that's made for things that don't fit anywhere else. If there is no such place, why the fuck are you here?

There's not much images posted here daily to begin with. Besides, this forum is about RENEGADE. Not arts and crafts.

Just use the General Discussion for this. An Arts forum would be unnecessary.

You are cause i never took anything from anyone from anyone.

I use image's but i do not steal them and if someone has a problem with me using a picture of there's i would be more than happen to delete it.
