This one is in the mission Deadly Reunion.I shoot up 2 vehicles, 1 helicopter and a few Nod soldiers and then get a message that I have failed this mission.Am I missing something somewhere?

They Got to Safety from You.. and your Sniper rifle. try Shooting them when the Get up on the wall.. Away from there Defence. and Think they got away. Unfortly the Oblisk will still be operatantion when you Beat the Next mission you will be in the Town again.. and well you got that Oblisk in your way.

It's stupid that it's operative in the next mission. Has anyone failed the mission and seen if theres a differance.By the way, just snipe the Rocket Officers First, so they don't bother you with theyr missiles. After shooting, you will hear: "Let's get out of here"Then, two engineers will start to run. At first, they will run towards the left, and then turn behind the buggy and run along the ridge all the way to the right. Just shoot them when they turn, as the buggy shouldn't be able to hit you. After shooting them, two more will start running, repeat the prosess twice and you should have killed all 6 engineers.And theres no real reason for killing them sice no bonus is awarded (I think)

If you have some heavy ammo left, use it on the helicopter. I did, plus the rocket soldiers. The first time I played that mission I was so mad after getting killed xx times that I wiped out everything alive in that area (including the engineers of course). Only got 3 stars I think anyway..Which brings me to the stars. Why do you have to rush through the levels as fast as possible to get 5 stars? It makes you skip all the cool places and people you can talk to on the way. I say: Forget about the stars! Just take your time, save often and HAVE FUN, * the secret level someone mentioned you get if you complete all missions with 5 stars. A code will probably lock it up later secret level anyway.Hidden
