Yesterday, I met a very foul-mouthed and insulting cheater in the server. He had BH. I have SS proof as well.

No BIATCH installed, then?

Uh yea I wouldn't really trust BIATCH to be 100% cheat proof(or even near it).

Biatch is not very good on Fan maps due to the added stuff in them like Gun/Cannon Emplacements, Vehicles or weird base defences or things like that.

When we used to run biatch on fan maps... it would go mad and ban pretty much everyone.

I haven't bothered to check...is there anyone playing on this server? How long will the server be around for?

There are not too many players right now.. One of the main reasons being that we don't have an a00* nickname, maybe someone will allow us to borrow one. Since we only host new maps it won't be much of a 'competition' for other servers.

The server will be online as much as possible, without crashes or restarts that means 24/7 the entire year.

Just the maps, the PT icons are not in there anymore.

I don't think not having an a00 nickname is the problem since 3.4.4 already sorts the listings by ingame player count. What is needed are more players to begin with.

Yes of cause and every new player who buys the game starts with 3.4.4.

Nah, I just assumed everyone got 3.4.4 installed together with the UberMapPack and can now either not play due to the black screen thing or can play with 3.4.4.

This server pwns. I miss the old days and awesome battles in Jelly mappack.

This server is great and would only be better if there were 20 people on it all the time.
