Or is Halloween candy getting smaller?

I'm going through my brothers bag of previously hidden loot, and I swear to God, the 'Oh Henry's' are a quarter the size they were when I was a kid.

I'm old. :<

It's all about perception, man. As a little kid size matters not, and everything is just seen as massive and delicious.

Yah, it could be that it just seemed bigger when you were younger, seeing as how you would have been smaller. I tend to notice that when watching old tv shows where the characters looked quite old like teenagers. But now they just seem like middle schoolers or younger. Also, tell him to trick or treat in rich neighborhoods. My little sister did and she got some big candy. Although apparently you also have to walk further from house to house.
