I made one for islands total reskin of the map used for multiplayer. every texture is renamed and people can change it how they want it without affecting any other maps but i never finished it but theres a beta test floating around stuck at like 90% wanted to do every map like this but got lazy lol.

Edit: i don't like the building and not every building texture i could change only the outside.

all great, but your ground texture is too "repeated" here, use mine, i made it long time ago for old reborn (2003)... its leet...

lol never noticed that

I had a problem with people seeing Westwood logo with newer version of ren or scripts 3.x.x I will try working on it and release a public version.

Did you make them skins or did you download them somewhere?

If so, links please.

I found the textures and turned them into.tga and .dds. Then i edited the islands map and changed its texture name and textured the map and put it in the .mix so it only effects that map.
