Reinstall Scripts 3.4.4

(Bloody anti spam post measures - some of us read and type quickly!)

Where do i get that?i tried your link before for it, but the page says something like "No longer supports this application" or something like that.

[Alright, found the directx 9.0c and downloaded it, but where do I install it?]

If you run the DirectX installer it would install by itself after accepting the liscence agreement. If you have to choose any directory or any other setting you probably have some Spyware/Virus etc crapy program downloaded :/

Microsoft webinstaller (newest files there are):

Web installer

Microsoft Redist Package (package with files till August 2008. I Suggest only if above doesn't work):

Redist Package

Well this should do it
