Looking for German Renegade-Players

I'm a staff member/moderator of the well known german C&C-Community-Board <http://www.united-forum.de>

Because I want my admins to create a CnC-Shooter-Universe section there, with sub-sections for APB, Reborn and RenegadeX, I'm looking for german speaking people interested to participate there.

My main goal is to promote Renegade and those most important mods, to raise the number of players and introduce the mods to the german community.

Unfortunately, possibility of still running Renegade-Servers and concerning mods are not well known in Germany.

So, I would like here registered german members to post, if they are interested.

I hope you just want to create a forum/community without a server? Because Renegade already has too many servers. Too many in the sense that there are like 20 perhaps 30 server that get players on a regular basis, and there are another 100(ish) servers empty, and barely used.
